

Job Description: Application Engineer

I. Overview:

Reporting to the Engineering Manager responsible for the daily liaison and support of the sales team for their technical questions, technical requirements and customer related questions / requirements specific to CCTY manufactured bearing products

II. Job Responsibilities:

- Technical review of customer/sales inquiries
- Sales support for technical customer appointments
- Link between Engineering HQ and customers or sales
- Review and reconciliation of engineering drawings and test specifications with customer and HQ
- Management of technical documents (e.g. drawings, ISIR, PPAPs, etc.) and samples.
- (Error) analysis and discussion of test/field returns
- Co-creation and management of quality management documents

III. Qualifications:

- Completed degree in mechanical engineering or a comparable course
- Preferably professional experience in the field of roller/plain bearing technology
- Application knowledge in the field of roller bearings and drive technology
- Experience in dealing with technical drawings and documentation
- Willingness to travel within Europe for client appointments and to HQ or other employer locations
- Good written and spoken English skills
- Computer skills (Word, Excel, Outlook)
- Responsible, careful and independent way of working
- Hands-on mentality
- Very good communication skills
- International teamwork